Summary:

The gang is hanging out, just sort of chilling, while Steve is doing a crossword. He decides to have some fun with it.

Oneshot/drabble

Billy

Steve Harrington genuinely liked hanging out with the younger kids, even when nothing crazy was going on. Right now he was waiting for them to be picked up by their folks. Before, they'd been trying to teach him how to play Dungeons and Dragons. Had it gone well? Who knows. Right now, as the others left, he was just doing a crossword puzzle to keep his mind occupied.

Billy Hargrove had come to pick Max up. Max was taking her sweet time though, so bored, he was hanging out in the living room.

"...Steve," Mike Wheeler said with an eyeroll. "You're such a fuckin' nerd."

"Hey!" Dustin said indignantly. Aw, thanks man.

"Guys, shut up for a second," Steve said suddenly. "I need a five-letter word for 'disappointment'."

"...Billy," Max piped up with a smirk.

Billy of course turned to glare at her.

"...it fits." Steve admitted. And it was true too.
